U.S. Citizenship Can Start at Libraries October 24, 2017 2-3 p.m. (Eastern)

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) invites libraries to participate in a webinar on October 24 from 2-3 p.m. (Eastern) to learn how local libraries can support the path to U.S. citizenship. The USCIS Newark District Office and a librarian from the Piscataway Public Library will share their experiences and best practices from working together to support citizenship in their community.

The webinar will conclude with a question-and-answer session. We cannot answer any case-specific inquiries.

The webinar is presented as part of the federal partnership with the Institute of Museum and Library Services to provide citizenship and immigration information to library and museum professionals.
