

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Non-Precedent Decision of the Administrative Appeals Office

In Re: 22399039

Date: APR. 12, 2022

Service Motion on Administrative Appeals Office Decision

Form I-914, Application for T Nonimmigrant Status

The Applicant seeks T-1 nonimmigrant classification as a victim of human trafficking under sections 101(a)(15)(T) and 214(o) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. §§ 1101(a)(15)(T) and 1184(o). The Director of the Vermont Service Center denied the Form I-914, Application for T Nonimmigrant Status (T application), concluding that the Applicant had not demonstrated that she is a victim of a severe form of trafficking in person (trafficking). On appeal, we determined that the Applicant had not demonstrated that she is a victim of trafficking and dismissed the appeal. The Applicant has overcome the ground for denial, and we therefore reopen the matter sua sponte pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(5), and remand to the Director of the Vermont Service Center for consideration.

ORDER: The decision of the Administrative Appeals Office is withdrawn. The matter is remanded to the Director of the Vermont Service Center for the entry of a new decision consistent with the foregoing analysis.